Command & Soldier Information:

- BSRF will be the soldier's place of duty on. Four promotion points may be awarded upon successful completion.
- Couples may attend the overnight/Level III(Day 3 & 4) only after they have completed Levels I and II (Day 1 & 2).
- Child care is an individual responsibility. Child Care will not be provided by the 16th Cavalry Regiment, or by the Chaplain's Office. Children may not be brought to Building Strong and Ready Families. For Day 1 & 2 , the Child Development Center's Hourly Care program may be an option, call 624-6708. Children must be registered with CDC, and reservations must be made well prior to the date you wish to use hourly care.
- The soldier certifies that the family has made any necessary arrangements for child care, spouse taking off from work or school, etc. Soldiers may not attend alone, BSRF is a couples program.
- Once money has been allocated for BSRF, it is lost to the Regiment and the Chaplain's Office. Therefore, attendance at all BSRF events is expected.
- The Regiment will provide all of the following: costs of off-site facilities, including hotel rooms for each couple attending BSRF, conference facilities, conference materials, and some meals. Couples attending BSRF will be responsible for their own transportation to on-post and off-post sites, and probably for one or two meals off-post.
- If you have any questions, please call the chaplains office at (502) 624-2267.
- BSRF is not designed for couples who are currently in counseling for a domestic violence case. If you have a question about this, please talk to one of the chaplains prior to registering for BSRF.
- Prior to the start of BSRF, a chaplain assistant will call the couple at home, to confirm that they plan on attending BSRF.
